Austin Nauman lives in Batavia, New York and works at Oakfield Corners Dairy as the Genetics Herdsman. Austin has judged several local, state and regional shows. He hails from Wisconsin, where he and his mother own a small herd of registered Jerseys, which they breed under the prefix Smokin Hot. The herd averages 91 points on classification. Since establishing their herd in 2008, they have bred or exhibited seven ABA/Cowsmo All-American nominations and four Junior All-American nominations, including one named Reserve All-American and one named unanimous Junior All-American. They have also exhibited an AJCA All-American, and two AJCA Junior All-Americans. Austin is a 2017 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison Farm and Industry Short Course program. Growing up he was active in dairy projects through 4-H and FFA, and was a member of the junior organizations for the Jersey, Holstein, Ayrshire, Guernsey and Brown Swiss breeds. Austin was named a Holstein Association USA Distinguished Junior Member semi-finalist in 2018 and a Young Distinguished Junior Member finalist in 2013, as well as the Wisconsin Junior Jersey Breeder of the Year in 2018.
