

BETH G. ROBERTS

Oldwick, NJ

908.674.1574

broberts@cedarlanefarm.net

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Maine State Holstein Show
- Kempton Fair

Beth Roberts is currently a manager at Cedar Lane Farm in Oldwick, New Jersey. The farm consists of 1800 acres, producing cornsilage, alfalfa haylage, hi-moisture corn and dry hay. Cedar lane dairy is made up of 80% register Holsteins and 20% registered Jerseys. The farm has been on the top 10 BAA list for several years. The dairy at Cedar Lane has had animals nominated for All- New Jersey, All- New York, All-American and All-Canadian awards. Cedar Lane Farm is a dairy of distinction. That has won many awards in producing quality milk and production awards from U.S Holstein. The farm is also used as an education facility for Princeton University, Rutgers and Del Val. Beth enjoys promoting the registered dairy cattle at the farm and has opened the farm to tour groups; young and old. She has helped organize the N.E.S.A competition at the farm and hosted the state judging competition for many years. Ms. Roberts has a degree in Animal Science and Agricultural Business. She won an international study abroad scholarship to Germany; where she managed a production Holstein herd. Beth has also worked in dairy nutrition for several years at Blue Seal feeds. She enjoys developing and working with great cattle. Her outside interests include; gardening, fishing and skeet shooting

