Cassie Menendez is a 2020 graduate of SUNY Cobleskill, where she received her bachelor's degree in agricultural business. While there, Cassie was a member of the 2019 dairy judging team that captured first place in the post-secondary contest at the All-American, World Dairy Expo and NAILE. Cassie also received first place individual overall at the All-American and World Dairy Expo, as well as top reasons individual at the All-American and NAILE. In partnership with her parents, Cassie manages a herd of 40 registered Holsteins and jerseys that they show at the state and national level and has received multiple Jr All-American nominations. In addition to judging confirmation classes, she enjoys judging showmanship. She has officiated the showmanship contests at the NY State Fair and NY State Holstein Show. Cassie has also served as an official for the All-American dairy judging contest.
