Julien Chabot and his wife Marianne Janssen, along with their daughter Alex, live in Embrun, Ontario. They raise and develop high class show heifers under the MaryInn Holstein prefix. They worked with more than 70 All-Canadian or All-American nominated animals in the last 23 years. The Holstein junior champions at World Dairy Expo in 2022 and 2023 called The Mary Inn their home

Julien Chabot is a sire analyst for Semex since 1995. He is most proud of two bulls he purchased, Braedale Goldwyn and Gillette Windbrook. Two bulls that are leaving a profound impact on the breed. Julien has judged major shows in 5 different countries as long as many Canadian provinces and several US states. Julien has been an official judge with Holstein Canada for 20 years
