

KYLE DEMMER

Farley, IA

563.451.5376

demmergenetics@gmail.com

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Illinois Holstein Junior Show
- South Dakota State Fair
- Wisconsin Junior State Fair Showmanship
- Wisconsin District 8 Holstein Show
- Minnesota District 1 Holstein Show

Kyle Demmer resides in Farley, IA with his wife Laura and their two sons, Jamison and Macklin. They own a small herd show type and high genomic animals under their farm name, Demmer Genetics. Kyle is a Managing Partner at GenoSource, a 3,500 cow Registered Holstein herd who focuses on elite Holstein genetics, prior to starting his work at GenoSource he worked within the genetic sector and was a professional dairy fitter. Kyle assists his father, Rick, in breeding decisions for his home farm, Le-O-La Holsteins of Peosta, IA, where they have bred one 95 Point Cow, twelve 94 Point Cows, have received two All-American honors for their Senior Best Three group and numerous All-American and Junior All-American nominations and honors. Kyle has owned and developed four 95 point cows, has been the co-breeder of a #1 TPI Proven sire as well as numerous chart topping genomic bulls and heifers.