

NATE OLENIACZ

New Oxford, PA
570.396.4789
nateo@4wardag.com

Top five most significant judging experiences:

- Premier National Junior Guernsey Show, Harrisburg PA
- Delaware State Fair Open Color Breed Show, Dover DE
- Maryland State Fair Junior Holstein Show, Timonium, MD
- North Carolina Holstein Junior Shows, Raleigh, NC
- Georgia Youth Livestock Expo, Perry, GA

Nate Oleniacz resides in New Oxford, PA where he currently is part owner and consultant for 4ward Ag, LLC providing ruminant nutrition consulting services throughout the Mid-Atlantic region. Nate is also a partner in a small group of elite jersey show cattle, marketing embryos and showing jerseys with deep pedigrees throughout the U.S. Nate was active throughout his youth, showing Holstein cattle and was active in 4-H & intercollegiate dairy judging. A graduate of Penn State University, Nate was a member of the dairy judging team there where he received All-American honors and a 10th place overall finish in the national contest at World Dairy Expo. Oleniacz has also led several youth showmanship and judging clinics throughout the Mid-Atlantic and has judged showmanship nationally including World Dairy Expo and The All American Dairy Show. Combined with his Showmanship experiences Nate, has also judged type and showmanship classes in multiple states.