Patrick Gubelmann grew up on a dairy farm in the Eastern part of Switzerland. At the age of 18 Patrick went to work for many well-known Holstein breeders across North America such as Pierre Boulet, Simon Boulet, Ferme Jacobs, Regancrest Holstein, Luck-E Holstein to name a few. During that time Patrick was taught about breeding and showing cattle on a superior level. Nowadays Patrick is working for Swissgenetics. He is responsible of the Western sales territory and enjoys advising farmers throughout Switzerland with mating decisions. Together with his wife Aline they are having 2 daughters Mia and Luna. Patrick is an official European Holstein Judge as well as an official Brown Swiss judge in Switzerland. Having judged over 30 shows within Switzerland Patrick also most recently has judged a regional Holstein Show in Belgium as well as the National Holstein Show Denmark. Besides judging Patrick also likes to find and develop promising young cows with deep pedigrees like CAPJ LAKE EX91, PJP LOVE EX92 and most recently COCO CHANEL VG87 2yr which was the H.M. Intermediate Champion of the Open European Holstein Show 2023 in Montichiari (IT).
