Sarah Lehner grew up on her family's farm in Delaware, Ohio. Starting with mainly grade Holsteins, she has developed a herd of registered cattle that have experienced show ring success at state and national levels. Sarah developed her first All-American nominee in 2020 and continues to breed high type Brown Swiss and Holsteins under the "Poolside" and "Del-Valley" prefixes.

Sarah is a graduate of the Ohio State University where she studied Animal Sciences and was a member of the dairy judging team. In 2019, Sarah and her teammates won the National Intercollegiate Dairy Judging Contest at World Dairy Expo. Sarah also earned All-American honors in national contests at both the 4-H and collegiate level. Passionate about both good cattle and dairy youth, Sarah has enjoyed judging numerous shows including showmanship at the Wisconsin State Brown Swiss Show and Ohio Spring Dairy Expo.

Today, Sarah is employed as a Field Sales Representative for Channel Seed and continues to manage the 25-cow dairy herd on her family's farm.
